

St. John Fisher School Summer Reading Assignment 7th Grade

Name: _____

Title of Novel: _____

1. EXPOSITION: The part of the story where the setting, characters, and conflict are introduced.
2. SETTING: Using complete sentences, describe where and when your story takes place.
3. CHARACTERS: Using complete sentences, list the main characters of your story. Describe what they look like, their age, where they come from.
4. PROTAGONIST: This is the main character in the story that the reader roots for. Using complete sentences, identify and tell me why you are rooting for this character.
5. TEXT EVIDENCE: Using text from the story with page numbers, support your description of your protagonist.
6. CONFLICT: This is the struggle or the main problem in the story. Conflict can be Man vs. Man or Man vs. Self, Man vs. Society or Man vs. Nature. Choose one of the following and identify the main conflict and describe how it is involved in the storyline.
7. SUMMARY: Using your thoughts, and in a proper paragraph, summarize the most important events in the story. Begin with your “hook” and lead me through the excitement of the story.

Novels to choose from: Refugee by Alan Gratz, Nowhere Boy by Katherine Marsh, or Illegal by Eoin Colter. This assignment is to be handed in to Mrs. Scannell when you return to school in August. Happy Reading!