

MEET OUR DEDICATED AND CARING SJF LEADERSHIP TEAM

Mrs. Maura Nash, Principal

Background: Mrs. Nash's personal and professional background is a great fit for SJF School. She is a life-long product of Catholic Schools, 34 years as a student or educator and counting! Mrs. Nash has a BA in Secondary Education, English Literature and History, with a minor in sociology, and a MA in Educational Leadership with a Type 75 certificate. Mrs. Nash is a Certified Danielson Model Evaluator and her teaching experience prior to SJF was at the high school level in English, ACT prep/tutor. Prior to teaching, she was a counselor at St. Xavier University.

Falcon Pride: Mrs. Nash is a proud mom of 3 Falcons! Her upbringing has instilled a strong sense of pride for Catholic Schools everywhere. She is a firm believer, champion, and ambassador of Catholic education and is committed to SJF students in this role and to families in our community. She has led the school during a time of significant adversity and is proud of the resilience of our teachers, students, and parents. She leads with the essential notion that we are all in this together, in our own family and in God's family.

More about Mrs. Nash: Mrs. Nash was teaching ELA in the junior high at SJF in 2018 when she was asked to take on the role of Principal. She stepped up and has not wasted a minute as she was immediately dedicated to the role and our school. In just a couple short years she has led the development of the five-year strategic plan and reenergized SJF School's mission with structure and focus. She is committed to understanding the strengths of our school and community and to recognize our weaknesses in order to create a plan that encompasses and embraces both, allowing us to thrive as a vibrant and high-achieving community.

Favorite Part of Being a part of SJF: Walking the halls and visiting the classrooms for the opportunity to interact with each student. I'm greeted with a smile and such optimism from so many students and each interaction inspires me to do more. I love when I witness our Falcons lift one another up. Celebrating those positive interactions and kind behavior that our students demonstrate is everything. Lastly, I'm so hopeful after meeting so many community members that we can leverage the strong legacy and spirit of SJF to continue to set our sights high and focus on our future. There are so many wonderful people in the community supporting SJF.

MEET OUR DEDICATED AND CARING SJF LEADERSHIP TEAM

Ms. Elena Chermak, Director Religious Education

Background: Ms. Chermak has been a faith leader in our SJF school and parish for many years. She serves as an advisor to teachers and staff and works directly with students in every grade to plan and present prayers, masses, prayer services, liturgical seasons, and sacramental celebrations. Ms. Chermak is originally from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania where she is the 2nd of 8 children in a family where faith is important. She earned a B.A. in history from Duquesne University while on a full four-year scholarship as a performer in an Eastern European folk-dance ensemble which travelled extensively throughout the United States. She came to Chicago to study at the University of Chicago Divinity School from which she holds a Master of Arts in Divinity. She studied language, history, and culture in Rome and at the Harvard Ukrainian Research Institute, each for a summer session. Her first job in Chicago was teaching high school religion while also working as a youth minister. In her first years at Saint John Fisher, Ms. Chermak went on to earn a Doctor of Ministry degree at the University of Saint Mary of the Lake (Mundelein Seminary).

Falcon Pride: Everybody is important! I have had the pleasure of working with many students and teachers throughout the years, yet every year is brand new, as the children's excitement for learning and their joy for encountering each season is infectious. The teachers and staff join me to instill a sense of pride in our students as beloved children of God. My experience as a performer and my love of our faith helps me teach the children to pray and read confidently at our prayer services and Sacraments. They are excited to participate. I love hearing how these faith experiences are formative for our students and families.

More about Ms. Chermak: Ms. Chermak is sought after for teaching in the archdiocesan Religion Teachers Certification and Lay Leadership programs. She received archdiocesan awards for her work in our school and parish, including Excellence in Catechesis presented by Cardinal Cupich in 2015 and the Heart of the School by Cardinal George in 2005. She also held archdiocesan leadership roles as vice president and president of the Chicago Association of Religious Educators. These activities let all know the wonders of our great school and parish community.

Favorite Part of Being a part of SJF: Working with your children in our faith-filled family of Saint John Fisher brings great joy daily. Every year is exciting with the students, principal, staff, priests, teachers and parents of our kind and caring community. The parents' faith, support, and encouragement make all these wonderful faith experiences for our children possible. May this foundation in faith guide their lives always.
